Members of Board of Governors are elected

A total of 1,590 ballots were received in the recent election: 1,550 were valid and 40 were declared invalid for having arrived too late, for lack of signature on the envelope, because the members were in arrears in dues and other reasons. All active members in good standing as of February 1, 1988 were eligible to vote. A report follows. Names of elected candidates appear in large type.

AGMA dance in America

by Alexander J. Dubé
Administrator for Dance

Over 800 of you, the AGMA dancers employed in 20 AGMA companies nationwide, have now been joined by 40 dancers of the Cincinnati Ballet who said union "yes" to AGMA.

Guaranteed work weeks, increased wages and improved working conditions unite you, the dancers, and that makes the difference.

Sharing information company to company through your union delegates establishes vital lines of communication improving the standard of the dance field. Solidarity nationwide will improve the conditions of your very special livelihood.

Yes, dance is alive and well and prospering within AGMA because you, the individual dancer, cares.

Our time is now. Our movement has just begun.

Chicago Symphony celebrates 30 years with Margaret Hillis

The Chicago Symphony Chorus, founded by Margaret Hillis, played a concert on March 13 with Ms. Hillis conducting to celebrate its 30th anniversary. The ensemble first sang on March 13, 1958, performing Mozart's Requiem with the Chicago Symphony, conducted by Bruno Walter.

Hillis has built the 170-voice ensemble into what has been called one of the most musically powerful professional choruses in the country. With seven Grammy awards to its credit in 30 years, the Chorus has become a major artistic resource of the midwest and a model for professional vocal ensembles worldwide.

The anniversary program featured an encore performance of the Mozart work as well as Verdi's Quattro Pezzi Sacri, which honors the first performance given under Fritz Reiner, at whose request the ensemble was formed.

Congratulations to AGMA members

Elsa Larsson, a freelance singer who has performed with Musica Sacra, among other groups, and her husband, John Howard, welcomed a daughter, Kerstin Leaycraft Howard, on May 16.

It's a boy, Bradley, for Jacqulyn Buglisi, AGMA Delegate, and Donlin Foreman, both principal artists of the Martha Graham Dance Company.

Two are awarded Life Memberships

Franco Gentilesca, New York Stage Director / Stage Manager, and Kathye Kerchner, Chicago Chorister, have been awarded Life Memberships for distinguished service to AGMA.

Mr. Gentilesca has been an AGMA member for 19 years and on the Board for 12 years. Ms. Kerchner has served on the Board of Governors for 12 of her 15 years as an AGMA member.

Have You Moved

Seriing AGMA notices, announcements, AGMAzine and other Guild documents to wrong addresses is costly and wasteful. Please be certain that AGMA has your correct address in its files. If you have moved recently and have not notified AGMA of your new address, please do so at once.
